Verse 1:

It's 2am, she's standing up

Just sleeping in the cold

I can't imagine why she's there

Misplaced, her orange jacket's far to clean to spend her life in doorsteps

Yet it's clear she hasn't brushed her hair

Prechorus:

She guards two plastic bags

Perhaps they're stuffed with family photographs

Of love taken far too long ago

Pretending she's not there,

Dreaming of life that she may live somewhere,

But where could she go?

Chorus:

And she says:

I want to find my way

To people that know and understand my pain

I want to find my way- to Heaven

Verse 2:

No one lends a helping hand

But then, she'd never ask for one

There's nothing they could do or say

Forever statuesque in doorways

Never leaning any night

Never being caught by the day

Prechorus:

Fine lines are carved so deep

Are they from years or not much sleep?

Did anyone try to help to break your fall?

You wipe away those tears

Block out those constant fears

Pray God might hear your call

Chorus:

And she says:

I want to find my way to comfort to wear away this taxing pain

And I want to feel the warmth of the sun again

I want a home to come to and arms to run to and love to run to

And I want to find my way - to heaven
